“Sweetheart, I’m Worried About You”

30 SECONDS

PRODUCTION NOTE: The music should be softly playing under the GUY, GIRL and WILLOW parts when they’re speaking, but should get slightly louder when the NARR is speaking. Also, in the beginning — when there is a series of people speaking — they should speak quickly one after the other.

MUSIC “WHY NOT?” JONSI

GIRL 1 But you’re not old enough.

GUY 1 Don’t you have to be wealthy to do that?

GIRL 3 You are a pretty terrible cook.

GUY 2 Don’t you travel sometimes?

MOTHER Sweetheart, I’m worried about you.

WILLOW What some people don’t know is, despite the myths, there is never a perfect time to foster a child in need. Your age, financial status and marital status are not a tying factor into consideration. These kids will accept you just the way you are — and will love you all the same. My name is Willow. I am 30 years old and I am a foster parent.

NARR Visit adoptuskids.org for more information on foster care opportunities in your state and what steps you can take to become a foster parent.
